Before we start

The WhatsApp Sales Method taught you what to say once a conversation begins. This guide solves the next question: where do those conversations come from?

The answer is the two places your future clients already spend hours every day: Instagram and Facebook. The problem is that most people post into the void. They get a few likes, maybe a comment, and nothing turns into a real conversation.

This playbook fixes that. You will learn to set up profiles that attract the right people, post content that makes them want to talk to you, and move them into your WhatsApp where you sell best. All organic. No ads, no bots, no buying followers.

Think of Instagram and Facebook as the front door, and WhatsApp as the table where you sit down and talk. This guide builds the bridge between them.

Let's build it.

Introduction: The Bridge Method

From scrolling to a real conversation

Turning a follower into a client is not one giant leap. It is three small, natural steps. We call it the Bridge.

Most people only do step one. They chase reach and followers, then wonder why nothing sells. The money is in steps two and three: inviting a small action, and moving the conversation to WhatsApp where the WhatsApp Sales Method takes over.

How this connects: this guide ends exactly where the WhatsApp Sales Method begins. Social brings the person to your chat, then C4 (Connect, Converse, Convert, Continue) closes the loop.

Module 1: Profiles That Attract

STEP 1 · ATTRACT

When someone lands on your profile, you have about three seconds. A clear profile turns a visitor into a follower, and a follower into a future conversation.

LESSON 1.1

The bio that converts

Your bio is not a place to be clever. It should answer three questions instantly: who you help, with what, and what to do next.

The 3-line bio formula

- Line 1: who you help and with what
- Line 2: proof or a specific detail
- Line 3: a clear call to action with your link

Example

Custom cakes for unforgettable parties 🎂

500+ events and counting

👉 Tap to order on WhatsApp

Use a bright, friendly photo or a clean logo. Then use Highlights (Instagram) or Featured (Facebook) as a mini website: pin your best proof where everyone can see it.

Five highlights every seller should have

- Start here (who you are)
- Results (happy clients, with permission)
- How it works
- Prices or packages
- How to order

LESSON 1.3

Your one link

You usually get one link. Point it where you want the conversation to happen: a WhatsApp click-to-chat link, so a tap opens a chat with a message already typed.

WhatsApp tip: a click-to-chat link looks like wa.me/your-number. You can even pre-fill the first message, so the person arrives in your chat already saying "Hi, I saw your profile".

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- Your bio must answer who, what, and what to do next, in three seconds.
- Highlights are your mini website. Pin your proof and your process.
- Send your one link straight to a WhatsApp click-to-chat.

ACTION STEP

1. Rewrite your bio with the 3-line formula.
2. Create the five core highlights.
3. Set your link to a wa.me click-to-chat with a pre-filled message.

Module 2: Content That Starts Conversations

STEP 1 · ATTRACT

You do not need to go viral. You need content that the right person sees and thinks "this is for me". Conversations beat likes every time.

LESSON 2.1

The 4 post types

Rotate these four and you will never run out of ideas. Each one does a different job.

- Teach: a quick tip that shows you know your stuff.
- Prove: a result, a before and after, a happy client.
- Relate: a story or a struggle your audience recognizes.
- Invite: a direct nudge to take the next step.

LESSON 2.2

Hooks that stop the scroll

The first line or first second decides everything. A hook promises something worth stopping for. Steal these openings:

- "The mistake almost everyone makes with [topic]..."
- "If you sell [thing], read this."
- "3 messages that turn a 'how much?' into a sale."
- "I used to [struggle]. Here is what changed."

LESSON 2.3

Calls to conversation

End most posts asking for a tiny reply. A comment or a DM is the seed of a sale. Make the action absurdly easy.

- "Comment the word LIST and I will send it."
- "DM me a 🔥 if you want the details."
- "Tap the link and say hi, I reply personally."

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- Rotate Teach, Prove, Relate, Invite. You will never run dry.
- The hook is everything. Promise something worth stopping for.
- End with a tiny, easy call to conversation.

ACTION STEP

1. Plan one post of each type for this week.
2. Write three hooks before you write any post.
3. Add a call to conversation to every post.

Module 3: The Invitation

STEP 2 · INVITE

An invitation turns a passive viewer into someone who raises their hand. Once they act, the door to a conversation is open.

LESSON 3.1

Comment to DM

Ask people to comment a keyword, then reply to each one in the DMs. Public comments boost your reach, and the DM starts the private conversation.

DIRECT MESSAGE AFTER A COMMENT

You

Hey! You commented LIST on my post 🙌 Here it is. Quick question so I send the right thing: is it for you or a gift?

Follower

For me!

You

Perfect. Easiest is to continue on WhatsApp so I can send photos and prices fast. Here is the link 📎

LESSON 3.2

Story stickers

Stories are built for interaction. Polls, questions and quizzes feel like fun, but each tap is a tiny commitment that you can follow up on.

Everyone who taps YES just raised their hand. Reply to each one in the DMs and move the warm ones to WhatsApp.

LESSON 3.3

The keyword trick

One simple keyword does the heavy lifting. It is easy to remember, easy to act on, and easy for you to track.

Template: "Want [result]? Comment or DM the word [KEYWORD] and I will send it over."

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- Comment-to-DM boosts reach and opens private chats.
- Story stickers turn passive views into tiny commitments.
- One keyword makes acting easy and tracking simple.

ACTION STEP

1. Run one comment-to-DM post this week.
2. Post one Story with a YES/NO sticker.
3. Choose one keyword and use it everywhere.

Module 4: The Handoff to WhatsApp

STEP 3 · MOVE

Move the chat where you sell best

Social DMs are noisy and easy to lose. WhatsApp is personal, fast and where people are used to making decisions. The handoff is the most important move in this guide.

LESSON 4.1

When to move the chat

Do not rush it, and do not wait too long. Move to WhatsApp the moment the person shows real interest, usually their second or third reply.

LESSON 4.2

The bridge message

Make the move feel helpful, not like you are dodging them. Give a reason (photos, prices, faster replies) and hand over the link.

THE HANDOFF, DONE WELL

Follower

How much is it?

You

Great question! So I can send you photos and the full price list properly, let's hop to WhatsApp, it is much faster there 😊 Here you go 🖱️ wa.me/...

AND THE CONVERSATION CONTINUES ON WHATSAPP

Lead

Hi, came from your Instagram 😊

You

Welcome! So glad you came over. Quick question so I help you right: what are you looking for exactly?

This is the bridge: the person now lives in your WhatsApp, where the WhatsApp Sales Method takes over. Connect, Converse, Convert, Continue.

LESSON 4.3

What not to do

- Do not dump your price and link with no warmth.
- Do not make them ask twice. Offer the move yourself.
- Do not message people who never engaged. That is spam, and it hurts you.

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- Move to WhatsApp at the first real sign of interest.
- Give a reason for the move, then hand over the link.
- Never message people who did not engage first.

ACTION STEP

1. Save your bridge message as a quick reply.
2. Set up your wa.me link with a pre-filled greeting.
3. Practice the handoff in your next 3 DMs.

Module 5: The Instagram Playbook

PLATFORM

Instagram rewards consistency and conversation. Here is how to use each feature on purpose, not at random.

LESSON 5.1

Stories

Stories are your daily touchpoint. Post a few every day, mixing useful, human and invite. Use stickers to spark taps and replies.

A simple daily Story set

- 1 quick tip
- 1 behind the scenes
- 1 poll or question sticker
- 1 soft invitation with the link sticker

LESSON 5.2

Reels

Reels are how new people find you. Keep them short, lead with a strong hook, and always end by telling viewers what to do next.

Reel recipe

- Hook in the first 2 seconds
- One simple idea, 15 to 30 seconds
- Clear call to conversation at the end

LESSON 5.3

DMs and Close Friends

Reply to every comment and DM. Use Close Friends as a warm inner circle for your most engaged people, where invitations feel exclusive.

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- Stories are your daily touchpoint. Mix useful, human and invite.
- Reels bring new people. Hook fast, one idea, clear ending.
- Reply to everyone. Use Close Friends for warm invitations.

ACTION STEP

1. Post a 4-part Story set today.
2. Plan one simple Reel with a hook and an ending.
3. Reply to every open comment and DM.

Module 6: The Facebook Playbook

PLATFORM

Facebook still reaches a huge, ready-to-buy audience, especially through groups and Marketplace. Here is how to use it without being spammy.

LESSON 6.1

Profile and Page

Keep a clean public profile and a simple Page for your business. Add your WhatsApp button to the Page so people can message you in one tap.

LESSON 6.2

Groups

Groups are where conversations already happen. Join a few where your audience hangs out, be genuinely helpful, and let people come to you.

The group rule of thumb

- Help first, sell never (in public).
- Answer questions with real value.
- Let interested people DM you, then bridge to WhatsApp.

Important: always respect each group's rules. Helpful members get clients. Spammers get removed.

LESSON 6.3

Marketplace

If you sell products, Marketplace puts you in front of local buyers actively looking. Use clear photos, an honest description, and move serious buyers to WhatsApp to finish.

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- Add a WhatsApp button to your Facebook Page.
- In groups, help first. Let interested people come to you.
- Marketplace reaches active buyers. Move serious ones to WhatsApp.

ACTION STEP

1. Add the WhatsApp button to your Page.
2. Join 2 relevant groups and answer one question helpfully.
3. List one product on Marketplace if it fits.

Module 7: The Weekly Engine

SYSTEM

Make it run on autopilot

Results come from rhythm, not bursts. This module turns everything above into a simple weekly system you can keep for years.

LESSON 7.1

The content calendar

Decide once, not every day. A light weekly plan removes the daily "what do I post?" and keeps you consistent.

A simple week

- Mon: Teach post + Stories
- Tue: Reel + Stories
- Wed: Prove post (result) + Stories
- Thu: Invite post with keyword + Stories
- Fri: Relate story + soft invitation

LESSON 7.2

Batch in one hour

Set aside one hour a week to create everything at once. Batching is faster, calmer, and keeps your style consistent.

- 15 min: pick your 5 topics
- 25 min: write captions and hooks
- 20 min: shoot photos and one Reel

LESSON 7.3

Track what works

Watch conversations, not vanity metrics. Likes feel nice, but DMs and WhatsApp chats pay the bills.

- How many people messaged you this week?
- How many moved to WhatsApp?
- Which post or Story brought the most chats?

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- Plan your week once. Remove the daily guesswork.
- Batch all content in one focused hour.
- Track conversations, not likes.

ACTION STEP

1. Fill in next week's simple calendar.
2. Book one hour to batch your content.
3. Write down this week's 3 conversation numbers.

Bonus A: 30+ Content Prompts

Never stare at a blank screen again. Pick a prompt, add your voice, and post.

Conclusion: Your 7-Day Launch Plan

Attract, invite, move. Then let the WhatsApp Sales Method do the rest. Keep this guide close, keep the scripts handy, and keep showing up.

See you on the other side.
